And be it enacted, That where the Landlord at the Time of applying for such Warrant as aforesaid had lawful Right to the Possession of the Premises, or of the Part thereof so held over as aforesaid, neither the said Landlord nor his Agent, nor any other Person acting in his Behalf, shall be deemed to be a Trespasser by reason merely of any Irregularity or Informality in the Mode of proceeding for obtaining Possession under the Authority of this Act, but the Party aggrieved may, if he think fit, bring an Action on the Case for such Irregularity or Informality, in which the Damage alleged to be sustained thereby shall be specially laid, and may recover full Satisfaction for such special Damage, with Costs of Suit; provided that if the special Damage so laid be not proved, the Defendant shall be entitled to a Verdict, and that if proved, but assessed by the Jury at any Sum not exceeding Five Shillings, the Plaintiff shall recover no more Costs than Damages, unless the Judge before whom the Trial shall have been holden shall certify that in his Opinion full Costs ought to be allowed. Where Landlord has a lawful Title, he shall not be deemed a Trespasser by reason of Irregularity.

CXXVI. And be it enacted, That in every Case in which the Person by whom any such Warrant shall be sued out of the County Court had not at the Time of suing out the same lawful Right to the Possession of the Premises, the suing out of any such Warrant as last aforesaid shall be deemed a Trespass by him against the Tenant or Occupier of the Premises, although no Entry shall be made by virtue of the Warrant; and in case any such Tenant or Occupier will become bound, with Two sufficient Sureties, to be approved by the Clerk of the Court, in such Sum as to the Judge shall seem reasonable, regard being had to the Value of the Premises, and to the probable Cost of such Action, to sue the Person by whom such Warrant was sued out with Effect and without Delay, and to pay all the Costs of the Proceeding in such Action in case a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant, or the Plaintiff shall discontinue or not prosecute his Action or become nonsuit therein, Execution upon the Warrant shall be stayed until Judgment shall have been given in such Action of Trespass; and if upon the Trial of such Action of Trespass a Verdict shall pass for the Plaintiff, such Verdict and Judgment thereupon shall supersede the said Warrant. Proceedings on the Bond for staying Warrant of Possession, &c.

CXXVIII. And be it enacted, That all Actions and Proceedings which before the passing of this Act might have been brought in any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Record where the Plaintiff dwells more than Twenty Miles from the Defendant, or where the Cause of Action did not arise wholly or in some material Point within the Jurisdiction of the Court within which the Defendant dwells or carries on his Business at the Time of the Action brought, or where any Officer of the County Court shall be a Party, except in respect of any Claim to any Goods and Chattels taken in Execution of the Process of the Court, or the Proceeds or Value thereof, may be brought and determined in any such Superior Court, at the Election of the Party suing or proceeding, as if this Act had not been passed. CAP. CXI.

An Act to amend the Law in Ireland as to Ejectments and Distresses, and as to the Occupation of Lands. [28th August 1846.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Law in Ireland as to Ejectments and Distresses, and as to 'the Occupation of Lands:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in all Cases of Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent the Amount claimed to be due for Rent, and the Times at which the same accrued, shall be stated upon the Declaration or Summons in Ejectment or Civil Bill, which Statement shall be written or printed thereon in the following Form, or as near thereto as the Nature of the Case will admit; (that is to say,) "The Lessor of the Plaintiff [or "the Plaintiff" in Case of a Civil Bill] claims being for Years Rent up to the Day of and if the Amount thereof be paid to the Lessor of the Plaintiff [or "the Plaintiff" in case of a Civil Bill] or his Attorney, together with the Costs, before the Day of being the First Day of ["the ensuing Term" to be here inserted in Proceedings in the Superior Courts, "the next Sessions" in Civil Bills,] further Proceedings will be stayed;" and the Lessor of the Plaintiff, or the Plaintiff in the Case of a Civil Bill Ejectment, or his Attorney, shall, upon either of them respectively being required so to do, specify in Writing the Demand for the Plaintiff's Costs of such Ejectment, and upon Payment or Tender, within the Time so specified, of the Rent so specified, together with the Costs, if specified as aforesaid, to the Lessor of the Plaintiff, or Plaintiff, or his Attorney, or in case the Costs shall not be specified upon such Requisition, then on Payment within the Time aforesaid of such Rent to such Lessor of the Plaintiff, Plaintiff, or Attorney, and upon Delivery or Tender within the Time aforesaid to such Lessor of the Plaintiff, Plaintiff, or Attorney of an Undertaking in Writing signed by some Person served with such Ejectment to pay the Plaintiff's Costs up to the Time of such Payment, when taxed, all further Proceedings in such Ejectment shall cease and be stayed accordingly: Provided always, that the Defendant in any such Ejectment shall be at liberty, notwithstanding such Payment, to have the Costs taxed, and if any Part of the Costs demanded shall be disallowed upon the Taxation, the Attorney for the Lessor of the Plaintiff, or Plaintiff, shall pay back to the Defendant the Sum so disallowed, and if more than One Sixth of such Costs shall be disallowed, shall also pay to the Defendant the Costs of such Taxation.

In all Ejectments for Nonpayment of Rent the Amount of Rent claimed shall be stated.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Defendant in any Action of Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent in any Superior Court against whom Judgment shall not have been obtained in such Ejectment by Leave of such Court or of a Judge of such Court, at any Time before Notice of Trial shall have been served, upon a Side Bar Rule obtained for that Purpose, or in such Manner or according to such Course of Practice as the Judges of the Superior Courts of Law, or any Eight or more of them, of whom the Chiefs of each of the said Courts shall be Three, shall prescribe, as hereinafter mentioned, to pay into Court a Sum of Money for Rent, with Liberty to the Plaintiff to proceed further in such Action at his Peril, the Defendant by such Rule undertaking to pay the Costs theretofore incurred to be taxed by the proper Officer, and in case of Nonpayment of the same to suffer the Plaintiff in taking such Money out of Court, either on an Affidavit of a proper Demand and Service of such Rule, to move for an Attachment against the Defendant so undertaking, or to sign final Judgment in such Ejectment; and when such Sum of Money shall be so paid into Court for Rent, if the Plaintiff or his Lessor shall not accept thereof, with Costs to be taxed by the proper Officer, in full Discharge of the Action, then upon the Trial of the Issue in such Cause, if it shall appear upon the Evidence that no greater Sum was due for Rent from the Defendant to the Lessor of the Plaintiff at the Time of the Service of such Ejectment than the Sum so paid into Court, the Verdict shall be entered for the Defendant: Provided always, that if final Judgment shall be signed for the Plaintiff in such Ejectment in consequence of the Defendant not paying the Costs incurred pursuant to his Undertaking as aforesaid, it shall not be lawful to issue Execution thereon without the Leave of the Court first had and obtained: Provided also, that if any Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent be in other respects sustainable, a Mistake or Error in the Statement of the Amount of Rent claimed to be due shall not defeat such Ejectment, except in the Case where the full Rent due has been paid into Court as aforesaid, or lodged with the Clerk of the Peace as hereafter provided, and the Landlord afterwards proceeding to a Trial or a Hearing shall fail to prove more to be due for Rent than the Sum so paid into Court, or lodged with the Clerk of the Peace.

In such Ejectments in the Superior Courts Money may be paid into Court for Rent and Costs.

CAP. CXIII.

An Act to improve the Proceedings in Prohibition and on Writs of Mandamus in Ireland.

[28th August 1846.]

1 W. 4. c. 21.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to improve the Proceedings in Prohibition and on Writs of Mandamus, certain Provisions were made relating to Applications for Writs of Prohibition, and to the Proceedings thereon, and to Damages and Costs of such Applications and Proceedings; and it is expedient that the said Provisions should be extended to and be in force in Ireland:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Enactments contained in the said Statute relating to Applications for Writs of Prohibition, and to Declarations and other Pleadings and Proceedings thereon, and to the Recovery of Costs and Damages therein, shall be and the same are hereby extended to and shall be in force in Ireland.

Provisions of 1 W. 4. c. 21. as to Writs of Prohibition extended to Ireland.

Provisions of 19 G. 2. (I.) as to Writs of Mandamus extended to other Cases of Writs of Mandamus.

II. 'And whereas the Provisions contained in an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for the better Regulation of Corporations, relating to the Writs of Mandamus, therein mentioned, have been found useful and convenient, and the same ought to be extended to the Proceedings on other such Writs;' be it therefore enacted, That the several Enactments contained in the said last-mentioned Statute relating to the Returns to Writs of Mandamus, and the Proceedings on such Returns, and to the Recovery of Damages and Costs, shall be and the same are hereby extended and made applicable to all other Writs of Mandamus, and the Proceedings thereon, except so far only as the same may be varied or altered by this Act.

For Protection of certain Officers to whom Writs of Mandamus are directed.

III. 'And whereas Writs of Mandamus, other than such as relate to the Offices and Franchises mentioned in or provided for by the said Act made in the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, are sometimes issued to Officers and other Persons, commanding them to admit to Offices or do or perform other Matters in respect whereof the Persons to whom such Writs are directed claim no Right or Interest, or whose Functions are merely ministerial in relation to such Offices or Matters; and it may be proper that such Officers and Persons should in certain Cases be protected against the Payment of Damages or Costs to which they may otherwise become liable;' be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Court in Ireland to which Application may be made for any Writ of Mandamus (other than such as relate to the said Offices and Franchises mentioned in or provided for by the said Act made in the Reign of King George the Second), if such Court shall see fit so to do, to make Rules and Orders calling not only upon the Person to whom such Writ may be required to issue, but also all and every other Person having or claiming any Right or Interest in or to the Matter of such Writ, to show Cause against the issuing of such Writ, and Payment of Costs of the Application; and upon the Appearance of such other Person in compliance with such Rules, or in default of Appearance after Service thereof, to exercise all such Powers and Authorities, and make all such Rules and Orders applicable to the Case, as are or may be given or mentioned by or in any Act passed or to be passed during this present Session of Parliament for giving Relief against adverse Claims made upon Persons having no Interest in the Subject of such Claims: Provided always, that the Return to be made to any such Writ, and Issues joined in Fact or in Law upon any Traverse thereof, or upon any Demurrer, shall be made and joined by and in the Name of the Person to whom such Writ shall be directed; but nevertheless theless the same shall and may, if the Court shall think fit so to direct, be expressed to be made and joined on the Behalf of such other Person as may be mentioned in such Rules, and in that Case such other Person shall be permitted to frame the Return, and to conduct the subsequent Proceedings at his own Expence; and in such Case, if any Judgment shall be given for or against the Party suing such Writ, such Judgment shall be given against or for the Person or Persons on whose Behalf the Return shall be expressed to be made, and who shall have the like Remedy for the Recovery of Costs and enforcing the Judgment as the Person to whom the Writ shall have been directed might and would otherwise have had.

Proviso as to Returns of Writs and Issues joined.

Proceedings not to abate by Death, &c. of the Officer having made the Return.

IV. And be it enacted, That in case the Return to any such Writ shall, in pursuance of the Authority given by this Act, be expressed to be made on behalf of any other Person as aforesaid, the further Proceedings on such Writ shall not abate or be discontinued by the Death or Resignation of or Removal from Office of the Person having made such Return, but the same shall and may be continued and carried on in the Name of such Person; and if a peremptory Writ shall be awarded the same shall and may be directed to any Successor in Office or Right to such Person.

The Costs of Application for a Mandamus to be in the Discretion of the Court.

V. And for making some further Provision for the Payment of Costs on Application for Mandamus, be it enacted, That in all Cases of Applications for any Writ of Mandamus whatsoever in Ireland the Costs of such Application, whether the Writ shall be granted or refused, and also the Costs of the Writ, if the same shall be issued and obeyed, shall be in the Discretion of the Court, and the Court is hereby authorized to order and direct by whom and to whom the same shall be paid.

Where Prosecutor intends to object to the Validity of a Return to a Mandamus, he must do so by way of Demurrer.

VI. 'And whereas it is expedient that Parties interested in the issuing of or in the Proceedings upon 'Writs of Mandamus shall be enabled in certain Cases to have the Judgments and Decisions of the 'Court of Queen's Bench in Ireland in respect of the said Writs, and of the Proceedings thereon, 'reviewed by a Court of Error, if they shall so think fit, and that a certain Mode of effecting the same 'shall be ordained and established: And whereas there is not any Power or Authority given by the said 'recited Act of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second to the Person prosecuting a Writ of 'Mandamus to demur to the Return made to any such Writ, so that the Decision of the said Court of 'Queen's Bench as to the Validity of such Return could be reviewed by a Court of Error;' for Remedy whereof, therefore, be it enacted, That in all Cases in which the Person prosecuting any Writ of Mandamus heretofore issued or hereafter to be issued shall wish or intend to object to the Validity of any Return heretofore made or hereafter to be made to the same, he shall do so by way of Demurrer to the same, in such and the like Manner as is now practised and used in the said Court in personal Actions, and thereupon the said Writ and Return and the said Demurrer shall be entered on Record in the said Court, and such and the like further Proceedings shall be thereupon had and taken as upon a Demurrer to Pleadings in personal Actions in the said Court; and the said Court shall thereupon adjudge either that the said Return is valid in Law, or that it is not valid in Law, or that the Writ of Mandamus is not valid in Law; and if the Court adjudge that the said Writ is valid in Law, but that the Return thereto is not valid in Law, then and in every such Case the Court shall also by the said Judgment award that a peremptory Mandamus shall issue in that Behalf; and thereupon such peremptory Writ of Mandamus may be sued out and issued accordingly at any Time after Four Days from the signing of the said Judgment; and it shall be lawful for the said Court and they are hereby required, in and by their said Judgment, to award Costs to be paid to the Party in whose Favour they shall thereby decide, by the other Party or Parties.

Proceedings thereupon.

Party aggrieved by Judgment may sue out a Writ of Error to reverse the same.

VII. And be it enacted, That whenever any such Judgment as is herein-before mentioned shall be given, or whenever Issue in Fact or in Law shall be joined upon any Pleadings, in pursuance of the said recited Act of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second and of this Act, or of either of them, and Judgment shall be given thereon by the said Court, it shall be lawful for any Party to the Record in any of such Cases, who shall think himself aggrieved by such Judgment, to sue out and prosecute a Writ of Error for the Purpose of reversing the same, in such Manner and to such Court or Courts as a Party to any personal Action in the said Court of Queen's Bench in Ireland may now sue out and prosecute a Writ of Error upon the Judgment in such Action, and such and the like Proceedings shall thereupon be had and taken, and such Costs awarded, as in ordinary Cases of Writs of Error upon Judgments of the said Court in Personal Actions; and if the Judgment of the said Court be reversed by the Court of Error the said Court of Error shall thereupon, by their Judgment, not only reverse the same, but shall also, in addition thereto, give the same Judgment which the Court whose Judgment is so reversed ought to have given in that Behalf; and if by their said Judgment they shall award that a peremptory Writ of Mandamus shall issue, the same shall and may accordingly be issued by the proper Officer in the Office from which such Writs issue, upon Production to him of an Office Copy of the said Judgment of the Court of Error, which shall be his Authority and Warrant for so doing: Provided always, that Bail in Error to the Amount of Fifty Pounds, or such other Sum as may by any Rule of Practice be appointed as herein-after provided, shall be duly put in within Four Days after the Allowance of the said Writ of Error, and the same shall afterwards be duly perfected according to the Practice of the Court wherein the said original Judgment was given, otherwise the Plaintiff in Error shall be deemed to have abandoned his Writ of Error, and the same shall not be further prosecuted.

Bail in Error shall be duly put in within Four Days after Allowance of Writ.

No Action, &c. for any thing done in obedience to any obedience to any peremptory Writ of Mandamus issued by any Court having Authority to issue Writs of Mandamus.

Court of Error may make Rules of Practice, &c.

IX. And be it enacted, That the said Court or Courts of Error which are hereby empowered to take cognizance of the Matters aforesaid may make and they are hereby directed to make, from Time to Time and as often as they shall see Occasion, such Rules of Practice in reference to the said Application and the Proceedings thereon, and in reference to the Writs of Error herein-before mentioned, and the Proceedings thereon, and the Amount of Bail to be taken, as the said Courts respectively may deem necessary to effectuate the Intention of this Act in relation to the same respectively.

CAP. CXV.

An Act to amend the Laws as to District Lunatic Asylums in Ireland; to provide for the Expence of the Maintenance of certain Lunatic Poor removed from the Richmond Lunatic Asylum, Dublin, for Want of Room therein; and to provide for the Salaries and Expences incident to the Office of Inspector of Lunatics in Ireland. [28th August 1846.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to make more effectual Provision for the Establishment of Asylums for the Lunatic Poor, and for the Custody of Insane Persons charged with Offences, in Ireland, certain Provisions were made for the Erection and Establishment of Lunatic Asylums in and for Districts to be limited and appointed in manner and by the Authority in the said Act mentioned: And whereas by an Act passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for appropriating the Richmond Lunatic Asylum in Dublin to the Purposes of a District Lunatic Asylum, it was among other things enacted, that a certain Building commonly known by the Name of the Richmond Lunatic Asylum, in the City of Dublin, theretofore established and used as an Asylum or Hospital for the Reception and Management of Lunatic Patients, should and might be and become, and the same has accordingly become, a Lunatic Asylum for the County of the City of Dublin, and for such other County or Counties as from Time to Time, under the Provisions of the said first-recited Act of the First and Second Years of His late Majesty, constituted, together with the said City of Dublin, a District of a Lunatic Asylum: And whereas, in consequence of the Number of Lunatic Poor whose Cases urgently required Admission into the Richmond Lunatic Asylum, it became necessary, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and forty-four, to 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 33. 11 G. 4. & 1 W. 4. c. 22.

'remove a certain Number of the Lunatic Poor then being Inmates of the said Asylum, and whose Cases 'did not so urgently require their Residence therein, to an Hospital or Asylum at Island Bridge in the 'County of Dublin, connected with and attached to the House of Industry in the City of Dublin; and 'such Lunatic Poor so removed have been kept, superintended, and maintained in the said Hospital, and 'the Expences of such Care, Superintendence, and Maintenance have been defrayed by the Poor Law 'Commissioners out of certain Funds in their Hands applicable to the Purposes of the said House of 'Industry: And whereas it is expedient that the Sum so defrayed and expended should be repaid to the 'said Commissioners, and that the Expence of the future Care, Superintendence, and Maintenance of 'such Lunatic Poor so removed (whilst they continue as Inmates of such Hospital) should be provided 'for by the County, Counties, or District which would have been or would be respectively chargeable in 'respect of them, in case they remained as Inmates of the said Richmond Asylum:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Amount of the Sums so heretofore defrayed or expended by the said Poor Law Commissioners in and for the Care, Superintendence, and Maintenance of the said Lunatic Poor so removed to the said Hospital, and of all Sums to be hereafter from Time to Time duly defrayed or expended by the said Poor Law Commissioners in and for the Care, Superintendence, and Maintenance of the said Hospital of the said Lunatic Poor, or any other Lunatic Poor, who, with the Consent of the Poor Law Commissioners and of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, may be removed from the said Richmond Lunatic Asylum, or from the District thereof, to the said Hospital, whilst they shall continue therein, to be ascertained by any Order of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, and Privy Council in Ireland, shall be raised off and provided for and paid by the same County or Counties, County of a City, or District off or by which and in all respects as the Sums or Expences requisite for supporting, supplying, and maintaining the same respective Lunatic Poor would or might be, or ought to have been or to be raised, provided for, and paid in case the same Lunatic Poor were respectively kept and maintained in the said Richmond Lunatic Asylum; and the Grand Jury of each such County, County of a City, or County of a Town, or of the County or County of a City or County of a Town in which such District may be situated, shall, without any previous Proceeding at any Presentment Sessions, present the Sum or Sums so to be ascertained accordingly, or in default thereof the same shall be inserted in and raised by an Order of the Judge of Assize or of the Court at any Presenting Term, which Order shall have the Force of a Presentment, and the Sum or Sums therein mentioned shall be applotted and raised and levied accordingly as if the same had been inserted in a Presentment duly made at the Assizes or Presenting Term at which such Order shall be made; and such Sums respectively, when so from Time to Time raised and provided, shall be paid over to the said Poor Law Commissioners, and by them be placed to the Credit of the Funds of the said House of Industry.

The Sums expended in supporting the Lunatic Poor removed from Richmond Lunatic Asylum to be raised by the Districts liable therefor.

Grand Jury to present the Sums necessary.

II. 'And whereas by an Act of the Seventh Year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, inti- 'tuled An Act for the further Amendment of an Act of the First and Second Years of His present 'Majesty, for the Establishment of Asylums for the Lunatic Poor in Ireland, it is amongst other things 'enacted, that if it shall at any Time happen that any Money shall have been raised off any County, 'County of a City, or County of a Town, or any Part thereof, towards defraying the Expences of 'erecting, establishing, maintaining, or supporting of any Lunatic Asylum, and that by reason of any 'Change of the District or Place in or for which such Asylum shall have been established such County, 'County of a City, or County of a Town, or any Part thereof, shall be taken out of the District liable to 'be assessed for such Expences, then and in such Case any Sum or Sums of Money which shall have 'been raised off such County, County of a City, or County of a Town, or such Part thereof as aforesaid, 'shall be raised off any and every County, County of a City, or County of a Town, or any Part or Parts 'thereof, which shall remain within such District; and all and every Sum and Sums which shall 'be so raised shall be repaid to the Treasurer of the County, County of a City, or County of a Town 'which shall have been removed from such District; and that whenever any County, County of a City, 'or County of a Town, or any Part or Parts thereof, which shall have been comprised in any former 'District, shall, by reason of any such Change as aforesaid, be comprised in or shall form Part of any 'new District, such County, County of a City, or County of a Town, or such Part thereof, shall be and 'is hereby declared to be subject and liable towards the defraying the Expences of any Asylum in or 'for such new District, in like Manner as is directed by the said recited Acts, or either of them, and as 'if such County, County of a City, or County of a Town, or such Part thereof, had been originally com- 'prised in or formed Part of such new District: And whereas by the said recited Act of the last 'Session of Parliament it is amongst other things enacted, that when any Change of the District of any 'District Asylum shall be made as aforesaid, no Sum of Money for defraying the Expences of main- 'taining or supporting any such District Asylum (after the same shall have been erected and estab- 'lished) shall from and after the passing of this Act be raised off any County, County of a City, or 'County of a Town, or any Part thereof, which shall remain (or be) within such District, or be repaid to 'the Treasurer of the County, County of a City, or County of a Town which shall have been removed 'from such District, or be raised off any such County, County of a City, or County of a Town, or Part 'thereof, which shall have been comprised in any former District, and shall by reason of any such 'Change be comprised in or form Part of any new District for any such Asylum, any thing in the said 'recited Enactment to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is expedient that the Sums 'payable payable under the said recited Provisions should be paid by Instalments and applied as herein mentioned;' be it therefore enacted, That the respective Sums of Money for erecting and establishing any such Lunatic Asylum so to be raised and repaid as in the said recited Provisions mentioned shall be raised and paid in or by Instalments or Proportions, which Instalments or Proportions shall, as nearly as the Circumstances of the Case will admit, be payable at the same Periods as the Instalments or Proportions or Sums which any such last-mentioned County, County of a City, or County of a Town which shall have been removed or transferred from any such District shall be liable to pay and contribute towards the Erection or Establishment of any District Lunatic Asylum in and for the District to which such last-mentioned County, County of a City, or County of a Town shall be so transferred; and it shall be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors and Privy Council in Ireland by any Order to ascertain the Instalment or Proportion, Instalments or Proportions, which ought to be so raised and paid, and the Times at which the same shall be payable and paid, and the County, County of a City, or County of a Town, or Part or Parts of a County, County of a City, or County of a Town, off which each such Instalment or Proportion ought to be raised; and the Grand Jury of each such County, County of a City, or County of a Town shall, without any previous Proceeding at any Presentment Sessions, present the Sum or Sums to be ascertained by any such Order or Orders accordingly, or in default thereof the same shall be inserted in and raised by an Order of the Judge of Assize or of the Court at any Presenting Term, which Order shall have the Force of a Presentment, and the Sum or Sums therein mentioned shall be applotted and raised and levied accordingly as if the same had been inserted in a Presentment duly made at the Assizes or Presenting Term at which such Order shall be made, and the same shall be so payable and shall be paid at the Periods aforesaid to the Treasurer of the County, County of a City, or County of a Town, which shall have been so removed or transferred from any such District, and such Treasurer shall pay over and apply such Sums when so received, so far as the same shall extend or shall be required, as the Case may be, in Liquidation and Discharge of such Instalments so payable by such last-mentioned County, County of a City, or County of a Town so transferred as aforesaid.

In case of Change of Districts of Lunatic Asylums the Sums to be repaid under recited Provisions shall be paid by Instalments, and applied in liquidation of the Payments which the County transferred from one District shall be liable to make for the Asylum of another District. 7 G. 4. c. 14.

Persons removed from Gaols to District Asylums by Order of the Lord Lieutenant, not being Criminals, may be discharged on Certificate that they are of sound Mind, &c.

III. And be it enacted, That any Person who has been or shall be, by Order of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, removed from any Gaol and admitted into any District Lunatic Asylum, not being a Criminal Lunatic within the Meaning of the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, may lawfully be discharged from such Lunatic Asylum without the Order of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, as in the Case of other Lunatic Poor, in case it shall be duly certified by Medical Certificate that such Person has become of sound Mind, or has ceased to be or is not a dangerous Lunatic or dangerous Idiot: Provided always, that nothing in this Provision contained shall apply to any Person who after he or she shall have been committed for Trial, or for default of Surety to keep the Peace, or after he or she shall have been convicted of any Offence, and during his or her Imprisonment by reason of such Committal or Conviction shall have been removed from any Gaol to any such Lunatic Asylum by virtue of a Warrant of the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors under the Authority of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the First and Second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to make more effectual Provision for the Prevention of Offences by insane Persons in Ireland.

SCHEDULE.

Sir, Dublin Castle, 5 October 1846.

I am directed by the Lord Lieutenant to inform you, that his Excellency has had under his Consideration the various Representations which have been made to him of the Operation of the Poor Employment Act, and of the Difficulty of finding in the greater Number of Baronies "Public Works" upon which it would be expedient or beneficial to expend Money to the Extent requisite for affording Employment to the People during the Existence of the present Distress, and with a view of obviating the bad Effects of a great Expenditure of Money in the Execution of Works comparatively unproductive, he desires that the Commissioners of Public Works will direct the Officers acting under them in the respective Counties to consider and report upon such Works of a re-productive Character and permanent Utility as may be presented in the Manner herein-after mentioned at any Sessions held under the above Act; and his Excellency will be prepared to sanction and approve of such of those Works as may be recommended by the Board, and so presented, in the same Manner as if they had been strictly "Public Works," and presented as such in the Manner required by the Act:

1. The Presentment Sessions will estimate the Sum which it may be necessary to raise off the Barony for the Purpose of affording Employment:
2. They will also ascertain the Proportion of such Assessment which, according to the last Poor Law Valuation, may be chargeable upon each Electoral Division of an Union, or Portion of an Electoral Division (if the whole shall not be included,) in the Barony, and they shall obtain for this Purpose, from the Clerk of each Poor Law Union, a Copy of such Valuation:
3. They will present for such useful and profitable Works to be executed in each Electoral Division, to the Amount of its Proportion of the Assessment, ascertained as above:
4. In case of Drainage, however, and sub-soiling so far as it shall be connected with Drainage, an Undertaking shall be given in Writing, and transmitted with the Presentment by the Person or Persons whose Lands are proposed to be drained (being "Proprietor" in the Terms of the Act 5 and 6 Victoria, Chapter 89,), stating that the Money so to be expended shall be a Charge exclusively on the Lands so to be improved, and be levied from the same, according to an Award to be made by the Commissioners, as under the last-mentioned Act and its Amendments.

His Excellency wishes it to be further understood, that in case these Regulations are not acted upon, and the Portions of the Assessment which would be leviable from each Electoral Division are not presented to be expended on some Work within such Division, the Proceedings at such Sessions must be considered with strict reference to the Provisions of the 9th and 10th Victoria, Chapter 107.

His Excellency, considering also that many Baronies have already held Sessions under that Act, to which Baronies the Opportunity of making Applications in the Manner now prescribed has not been afforded, it is his Desire that all Works already sanctioned in those Baronies, or applied for and which it may become requisite to sanction, in order to afford continued Employment, shall be proceeded with until other Sessions may be conveniently held in such Baronies.

His

His Excellency, in taking upon himself the Responsibility, under the urgent Circumstances of the Case, of inviting the Magistrates and Cess-payers to provide Employment for the People by the Execution of useful and reproductive Works, confidently trusts, with their Assistance, and the Blessing of the Almighty on their united Exertions, that the Calamity with which it has pleased Providence to afflict Ireland may yet in its Results become conducive to the Production of a greater Abundance of human Food from the Soil, and to the future permanent Improvement of the Country.

I have the Honour to be,
Sir,
Your obedient Servant,

The Chairman of the Board of Public Works. H. LABOUCHERE.

CAP. XI.

An Act to explain and amend the Act authorizing the Advance of Money for the Improvement of Land by Drainage in Great Britain. [30th March 1847.]

9 & 10 Vict. c. 101.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to authorize the Advance of Public Money, to a limited Amount, to promote the Improvement of Land in Great Britain and Ireland by Works of Drainage: And whereas it is expedient that the said Act should be explained and amended:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Expences herein-after mentioned shall be deemed to be and may be included among the Expences of Works of Drainage, in respect of which Advances may be made under the Provisions of the said Act; (that is to say,)

Certain Expences deemed to be included as Expences of Works of Drainage.

The Expence of making or improving and securing from or for the Benefit of the Land proposed to be improved by Drainage an Outfall through other Land, or such Part, as the Commissioners may think reasonable, of the Expence of making or improving and securing such Outfall, for the Benefit of the Land in respect of which the Advance may be applied for, and of other Land:

The Expence of making open Drains and Watercourses, including such open Drains and Watercourses as may need frequent Repair, where reasonable Security for their Maintenance shall appear to the Commissioners to be afforded by the Interests or Liabilities of the Tenants and Occupiers of the Land:

And the Expence of fencing, trenching, and clearing the Surface of Land to be drained for the Purpose of converting the same from Waste or Pasture into Arable or Tillage Land, where such fencing, trenching, and clearing respectively shall appear to the Commissioners to be necessary to secure and render productive the proposed Improvement by Drainage:

Provided that it shall appear to the Commissioners that in all the Cases aforesaid the Works will effect an Improvement in the yearly Value of the Land, which will exceed the utmost yearly Amount which can be charged thereon under the said Act in respect of the Advance applied for.

Plans, &c. may be dispensed with in certain Cases.

II. And be it enacted, That where by the said Act the Plan, Estimate, and Specification of the proposed Drainage is required to be inspected or examined by and to be annexed to the Report of the Assistant Commissioner, or Surveyor or Engineer, it shall be sufficient for the Assistant Commissioner, or Surveyor or Engineer, unless the Commissioners shall otherwise direct, to inquire into and to embody in his Report such Particulars of the Land proposed to be drained, and of the proposed or any other Manner of effecting the Drainage thereof, and of the estimated Expences of such Drainage, as shall appear to him necessary and sufficient to enable the Commissioners to judge of the Expediency of an Advance in respect of the proposed Works; and where in the Provisional Certificate, or in any subsequent Proceedings, Reference is by the said Act required to be made to the Plan and Specification annexed to such Report, Reference may be made thereto, or to the said Report, as Circumstances may require; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to certify their Opinion that an Advance should be made in respect of any Works, notwithstanding any Deviation therein from the proposed Manner of effecting the Drainage, if such Deviation shall appear to the Commissioners to be expedient, and productive of Improvement as permanent and of as great yearly Amount as the Manner at first proposed.

Applicants for Advances may withdraw or reduce the Amount of their Applications.

III. And be it enacted, That all Parties who shall have made Applications for Advances under the said Act may at any Time, before Provisional Certificates shall have been issued thereon respectively, by Writing addressed to the Commissioners, withdraw or reduce the Amount of the Advances for which their several Applications are made; and the Commissioners may deal with any Application for such reduced Advance in the same Manner in all respects as if the Advance for which such Application is made had been originally limited to the Amount to which the same shall be so reduced.

Applicants may substitute Applications (in respect of other Lands) for the Applications withdrawn or reduced in Amount.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That any Party who shall withdraw an Application or reduce the Amount of the Advance for which his Application may have been made, under the Provision hereinbefore contained, may at the Time of such Withdrawal or Reduction substitute for the Application so withdrawn an Application for an Advance for the Drainage of any of his Lands not comprised in his previous Application; and if the Advance applied for by such substituted Application do not exceed the Advance for which the Application so withdrawn may have been made, or (in the Case of such Reduction as aforesaid) do not exceed the Amount withdrawn by Reduction from the Advance for which the previous Application may have been made, the Commissioners may, in dealing with such substituted Application, give the same the Benefit (if any) in respect of Priority to which they might have deemed it entitled if it had been made at the same Time, and instead, in whole or in part, of the previous Application: Provided always, that every such substituted Application shall, in respect to the Notice required to be given by Advertisement, and all Inquiries and Proceedings to be had thereupon, except as aforesaid, be dealt with as an original Application.

Where separate Applications have been made by the same Owner for several Ad. vances, the same may be con. solidated.

V. And be it enacted, That where separate Applications shall have been made by the same Owner for several Advances for the Drainage of several Lands, or where successive Applications shall have been made for an Advance, and a further Advance for Works of Drainage on the same Lands, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners (with the Consent of the Owner for the Time being of such Lands or Land) by their Provisional Certificate, or by any other Writing under their Seal, to declare such several Applications to be consolidated and treated as One Application, and thenceforth the Proceedings and the Provisional Certificate, and the Certificates respectively which shall be had and issued upon such consolidated Application, shall be had, framed, and issued respectively in the same Manner, and shall have the same Force and Effect in all respects, as if the aggregate Amount of the Advances applied for by the several Applications had been applied for, and in the Case of several Lands and Works as if such several Lands and Works had been all mentioned and included in One Application: Provided always, that where such separate Applications as aforesaid shall have been made for Advances for the Drainage of several Lands, such Applications shall not be consolidated without the like Notice by Advertisement of the proposed Consolidation as by the said recited Act is required in respect of an Application for an Advance; and where such Notice by Advertisement shall be given, any Person who would have been authorized to dissent from an Application for an aggregate Advance in respect of the Lands comprised in such several Applications may dissent from such proposed Consolidation, and the Provisions of the said recited Act in relation to Dissents shall be applicable to Dissents from a proposed Consolidation.

Advances may be made on account in certain Cases.

VI. And be it enacted, That where a Provisional Certificate has been or shall have been issued under the said Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, whether a Declaration shall or shall not have been inserted in the Provisional Certificate for this Purpose, to certify to the Commissioners of the Treasury that an Advance on account should be made in respect of any Part of the proposed Works which shall have been actually executed, not exceeding in Amount the whole of the Sum then actually expended thereon, in case it shall be shown to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners that the Part so executed will, independently of the Part remaining unexecuted, be durable and effectual, and produce an Improvement in the yearly Value of the Land exceeding the Amount of the yearly Charge which can be made under the said Act in respect of such Advance.

Time for Completion of Works.

VII. And be it enacted, That no Provisional Certificate shall be issued under the said Act unless it shall be shown to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, or Security be given to their Satisfaction by the Party applying for the Advance, that the Works for which the Advance is to be made may be completed within Five Years from the Date of the Certificate; and the Commissioners shall annex to every Provisional Certificate to be issued under the Authority of the said Act a Provision that all Works in respect of which they shall certify their Opinion that an Advance should be made shall be completed within Five Years as aforesaid, and no Provisional Certificate shall be issued upon any Application or Applications by the same Owner for any larger Sum than Ten thousand Pounds: Provided always, that in case it shall be shown to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, or Security be given to their Satisfaction by the Party applying for the Advance, that the Works for which the Advance is to be made may be completed within Three Years from the Date of the Certificate, and that it shall also appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners that such Works are to be executed within any District in Scotland in which Distress prevails, and that such Works may be executed by the Labour of the Inhabitants of such District, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners in such Case, on the Application of any Owner, and with the Sanction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to issue a Provisional Certificate or Provisional Certificates for such larger Sum or Sums as they in their Discretion shall see fit, subject to a Provision to be annexed to such last-mentioned Certificate that such Works shall be completed within the said Period of Three Years.

Form of Certificates, and their Effect.

VIII. And be it enacted, That Certificates and Provisional Certificates under the said Act may respectively be made in such Form as the Commissioners shall think fit; and every such Certificate and Provisional Certificate respectively, when sealed with the Seal of the Commissioners, shall for all Purposes be conclusive Evidence that all the Applications and Acts whatsoever which ought to have been made and done previously to the issuing thereof have been made and done by the Persons authorized to make and do the same, and that an Advance may be issued by virtue of such Certificate, and that the Land shall become charged in respect of such Advance; and no such Certificate or Provisional Certificate shall be impeached by reason of any Omission or Mistake therein.

Provisional Certificate may be assigned.

IX. And be it enacted, That any Owner of Land to whom a Provisional Certificate shall have been issued under the said Act, or any subsequent Owner of such Land, may assign such Provisional Certificate, by way of Security, to any Person who may have advanced or may agree to advance Monies for the Execution of the Works therein mentioned, and such Assignment may be made by an Endorsement on the Provisional Certificate in the Form set forth in the Schedule to this Act; and such Assignee shall be entitled to claim and receive, upon and in respect of such Provisional Certificate, such Advances as the Owner by whom the Assignment shall have been made might have claimed and received in case such Assignment had not been made, subject nevertheless to the Right of the Owner as against such Assignee to an Account of the Advances so received, or of so much thereof as shall not be owing on his

Security; and, subject to the Rights of Assignees as aforesaid, each Advance shall be made to the Owner by whom the Works in respect of which an Advance may be made shall appear to the Commissioners to have been executed, and who shall have been named in the Certificate accordingly, or to the legal personal Representative of such Owner; and where an aggregate Advance shall be made in respect of Works which shall have been in part executed by an Owner whose Ownership shall have ceased, and in part by a subsequent Owner, the Advance shall be apportioned by the Commissioners between the Owners in such Manner as by the Report of a Surveyor or Assistant Commissioner, or otherwise, shall appear to the Commissioners to be reasonable, having regard to the Sums expended by the successive Owners, and such successive Owners may be named in the Certificate accordingly.

As to the Words "Owner of Lands."

X. And be it declared and enacted, That the Words "Owner of Lands" shall, as to Lands in Scotland, include any Corporation.

XI. And be it enacted, That this Act and the recited Act shall be construed together as One Act, and the Provisions herein contained shall be deemed to extend to all Proceedings and Matters already taken and done in the same Manner as if such Provisions had been originally inserted in the said recited Act.

and the Justice to whom such Certificate shall be produced shall, after satisfying himself that the Recruit who had absconded cannot be found and apprehended, transmit a Duplicate thereof to Her Majesty's Secretary at War, in order that, in the event of such Recruit being afterwards apprehended and reported as a Deserter, the Facts of his having received Enlisting Money, and having absconded after having been enlisted, may be ascertained before he be finally adjudged to be a Deserter; and any Recruit who shall enlist into Her Majesty's Forces, and who shall be discovered to be incapable of active Service by reason of any Infirmity concealed or not declared by such Recruit before the Justice at the Time of his Attestation, may be transferred to any Garrison or Veteran or Invalid Battalion or Company, or into Her Majesty's Marine Forces, notwithstanding he shall have enlisted for any particular Regiment, and shall be entitled to receive such Proportion or Residue of Bounty only as Her Majesty may allow in that Behalf, instead of the Bounty upon which such Man shall have been enlisted, any thing in any Act or Acts, or any Rules and Regulations relating to Soldiers, to the contrary notwithstanding; and it shall be lawful for any Two Justices acting for the County, District, City, Burgh, or Place where any such Recruit shall at any Time happen to be when any such Recruit shall be brought, and shall be proved upon Oath before them to have concealed his having been a Soldier and discharged, or to have concealed his having been discharged upon any prior Enlistment, or to have wilfully concealed any such Infirmity, or to have designedly made any false Representation upon being attested, to adjudge such Recruit, if in England, to be a Rogue and Vagabond, and to sentence him to such Punishment as by any Law in force may be inflicted upon Rogues and Vagabonds, and to adjudge such Person, if in Scotland or Ireland, to be imprisoned with hard Labour in any Prison or House of Correction for any Period not exceeding Three Months; LXIV. Removal of Doubts as to Attestation of Soldiers.

LXV. 'And whereas certain Soldiers who have heretofore been duly enlisted, and who have voluntarily taken the Oath of Allegiance and Fidelity, and are now receiving Her Majesty's Pay, have been sworn and attested, but Doubts have arisen whether the Justices before whom the said Soldiers have been so sworn and attested were duly qualified to administer to such Soldiers the Oaths prescribed by the several Acts passed for the punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters;' be it enacted, That in every Case where any such Soldier, having been duly enlisted, shall have been so attested and sworn, and shall not have claimed to be discharged on or before the Seventeenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and forty-six, he shall not be entitled to his Discharge by reason of such Informality, but shall be liable to all the Provisions of this Act, and of the Act passed during the last Session of Parliament for the punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, where in force, and shall be entitled to the full Benefit of his past Service, and to all Pay and Pension in respect thereof, to all Intents and Purposes and in like Manner as if he had been duly attested and sworn.

Authorized Deductions only to be made from the Pay of the Army.

LXVI. How and where Troops may be billeted.

LXVII. 'And whereas by Petition of Right in the Third Year of King Charles the First it is enacted and declared, that the People of the Land are not by the Laws to be burdened with the sojourning of Soldiers against their Wills; and by a Clause in an Act of the Parliament of England, made in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, for granting a Supply to His Majesty of Two hundred and six thousand four hundred and sixty-two Pounds Seventeen Shillings and Three-pence, for paying and disbanding the Forces, it is declared and enacted, that no Officer, Civil or Military, nor other Person whosoever, should thenceforth presume to place, quarter, or billet any Soldier upon any Subject or Inhabitant of this Realm, of any Degree, Quality, or Profession whatsoever, without his Consent, and that it shall be lawful for any Subject or Inhabitant to refuse to quarter any Soldier, notwithstanding any Warrant or Billetting whatsoever: And whereas by an Act passed in Ireland in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, intituled An Act to prevent the Disorders that may happen by the marching of Soldiers, and providing Carriages for the Baggage of Soldiers on their March, it was enacted, that no Officer, Soldier, or Trooper in the Army, nor the Servant of any Officer, nor any Attendant on the Train of Artillery, should at any Time thereafter be allowed any Quarters in any Part of Ireland, save only during such Time as he or they should be and remain in some

'Seaport Town in order to be transported, or during such Time as there should be any Commotion in 'any Part of Ireland, by reason of which Emergency the Army should be commanded to march from any 'Part of Ireland to another:' But forasmuch as at this Time, during the Continuance of this Act, there is and may be Occasion for the marching and quartering of Regiments, Troops, and Companies in several Parts of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for all Constables of Parishes and Places, and other Persons specified in this Act, in England and Ireland, and they are hereby required, to billet the Officers and Soldiers in Her Majesty's Service and Persons receiving Pay in Her Majesty's Army, and the Horses belonging to Her Majesty's Cavalry, and also all Staff and Field Officers Horses, and all Bât and Baggage Horses belonging to any of Her Majesty's other Forces, when on actual Service, not exceeding for each Officer the Number for which Forage is or shall be allowed by Her Majesty's Regulations, in Victualling Houses and other Houses specified in this Act, (taking care in Ireland not to billet less than Two Men in One House, except only in case of billeting Cavalry as specially provided); and that they shall be received by the Occupiers of such Houses in which they are so allowed to be billeted, and be furnished by such Victuallers with proper Accommodation in such Houses, or if any Victualler shall not have sufficient Accommodation in the House upon which a Soldier is billeted, then in some good and sufficient Quarters to be provided by such Victualler in the immediate Neighbourhood, and in England with Diet and Small Beer, and with Stables, Hay, and Straw for such Horses as aforesaid, paying and allowing for the same the several Rates herein-after provided; and at no Time when Troops are on a March shall any of them, whether Infantry or Cavalry, be billeted above One Mile from the Place mentioned in the Route; and in all Places where Cavalry shall be billeted in pursuance of this Act, the Men and their Horses shall be billeted in one and the same House, except in case of Necessity; and in no other Case whatsoever shall there be less than One Man billeted where there shall be One or Two Horses, nor less than Two Men where there shall be Four Horses, and so in proportion for a greater Number; and in no Case shall a Man and his Horse be billeted at a greater Distance from each other than One hundred Yards; and the Constables are hereby required to billet all Soldiers and their Horses on their March in a just and equal Proportion upon the Keepers of all Houses within One Mile of the Place mentioned in the Route, although some of such Houses may be in the adjoining County, in like Manner in every respect as if such Houses were locally situate within such Place; provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to authorize any Constable to billet Soldiers out of the County to which such Constable belongs when the Constable of the adjoining County shall be present and undertake to billet the due Proportion of Men in such adjoining County; and no more Billets shall at any Time be ordered than there are effective Soldiers and Horses present to be billeted; all which Billets, when made out by such Constables, shall be delivered into the Hands of the Commanding Officer present; and if any Person shall find himself aggrieved by having an undue Proportion of Soldiers billeted in his House, and shall prefer his Complaint, if against a Constable or other Person not being a Justice, to One or more Justices, and if against a Justice, then to Two or more Justices, within whose Jurisdiction such Soldiers are billeted, such Justices respectively shall have Power to order such of the Soldiers to be removed, and to be billeted upon other Persons as they shall see Cause; and when any of Her Majesty's Cavalry or any Horses as aforesaid shall be billeted upon the Occupiers of Houses in which Officers or Soldiers may be quartered by virtue of this Act who shall have no Stables, then and in such Case, upon the written Requisition of the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Troop, or Detachment, the Constable is hereby required to billet the Men and their Horses, or Horses only, upon some other Person or Persons who have Stables by this Act liable to have Officers and Soldiers billeted upon them; and upon Complaint being made by the Person or Persons to whose House or Stables the said Men and Horses shall have been so removed to Two or more Justices within whose Jurisdiction such Men or Horses shall be so billeted, it shall be lawful for such Justices to order a proper Allowance to be paid by the Person relieved to the Persons receiving such Men and Horses, or to be applied in furnishing the requisite Accommodation; and Commanding Officers may exchange any Man or Horse billeted in any Place with another Man or Horse billeted in the same Place, for the Benefit of the Service, provided the Number of Men and Horses do not exceed the Number at that Time billeted on such Houses; and the Constables are hereby required to billet such Men and Horses so exchanged accordingly; and it shall be lawful for any Justice, at the Request of any Officer or Non-commissioned Officer commanding any Soldiers requiring Billets, to extend any Routes or enlarge the Districts within which Billets shall be required, in such Manner as shall appear to be most convenient to the Troops; provided that to prevent or punish all Abuses in billeting Soldiers, it shall be lawful for any Justice within his Jurisdiction, by Warrant or Order under his Hand, to require any Constable to give him an Account in Writing of the Number of Officers and Soldiers who shall be quartered by such Constables, together with the Names of the Persons upon whom such Officers and Soldiers are billeted, stating the Street or Place where such Persons dwell, and the Sign, if any, belonging to those Houses; and it shall be lawful for Constables to billet Officers and Soldiers in Scotland according to the Provisions of the Laws in force in Scotland at the Time of its Union with England; and no Officer shall be obliged to pay for his Lodging where he shall be regularly billeted, except in the Suburbs of Edinburgh: Provided that no Officer or Soldier shall be billeted in England in any private Houses, or in any Canteen held or occupied under the Authority of the Ordnance Department, or upon Persons who keep Taverns only, being Vintners of the City of London admitted to their Freedom of the said Company in right of Patrimony or Apprenticeship, notwithstanding such Persons who keep such Taverns only have taken out Victualling Licences, nor in the Houses of any Distiller kept for distilling Brandy and Strong Waters, nor in the

And be it enacted, That the Officers and Soldiers of Her Majesty's Foot Guards shall be billeted within the City and Liberties of Westminster and Places adjacent, lying in the County of Middlesex (except the City of London), and in the County of Surrey, and in the Borough of Southwark, in the same Manner and under the same Regulations as in other Parts of England, in all Cases for which particular Provision is not made by this Act; and the High Constable shall, on Receipt of the Order for billeting Soldiers, deliver Precepts to the several Constables within their respective Divisions, in pursuance of which the said Constables shall billet such Officers and Soldiers equally and proportionally on the Houses subjected thereto by this Act; and the said Constables shall at every General Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the said City and Liberties, Counties, and Borough respectively, make and deliver to the Justices then in open Session assembled, upon Oath, which Oath the said Justices are hereby required to administer, Lists, signed by them respectively, of the Houses subject by this Act to receive Officers and Soldiers, together with the Names and Rank of all Officers and Soldiers billeted on each respectively, which Lists shall remain with the respective Clerks of the Peace for the Inspection of all Persons, without Fee or Reward; and such Clerk shall forthwith from Time to Time deliver to any Persons who shall require the same true Copies of any such Lists, upon being paid Two-pence per Sheet for the same, each Sheet to contain at the least One hundred and fifty Words.

XXIX. Nothing in this or the special Act contained shall prevent the Undertakers from being liable to an Indictment for Nuisance, or to any other legal Proceeding to which they may be liable, in consequence of making or supplying Gas.

Profits of the Company.

And with respect to the Amount of Profit to be received by the Undertakers when the Gasworks are carried on for their Benefit, be it enacted as follows:

XXX. The Profits of the Undertaking to be divided amongst the Undertakers in any Year shall not exceed the prescribed Rate, or where no Rate is prescribed they shall not exceed the Rate of Ten Pounds in the Hundred by the Year on the paid-up Capital in the Undertaking, which in such Case shall be deemed the prescribed Rate, unless a larger Dividend be at any Time necessary to make up the Deficiency of any previous Dividend which shall have fallen short of the said yearly Rate.

If Profits exceed the Amount limited Excess to be invested, and form a reserved Fund.

XXXI. If the clear Profits of the Undertaking in any Year amount to a larger Sum than is sufficient, after making up the Deficiency in the Dividends of any previous Year as aforesaid, to make a Dividend at the prescribed Rate, the Excess beyond the Sum necessary for such Purpose shall from Time to Time be invested in Government or other Securities; and the Dividends and Interest arising from such Securities shall also be invested in the same or like Securities, in order that the same may accumulate at Compound Interest until the Fund so formed amounts to the prescribed Sum, or if no Sum be prescribed a Sum equal to One Tenth of the nominal Capital of the Undertakers, which Sum shall form a reserved Fund to answer any Deficiency which may at any Time happen in the Amount of divisible Profits, or to meet any extraordinary Claim or Demand which may at any Time arise against the Undertakers; and if such Fund be at any Time reduced, it may thereafter be again restored to the said Sum, and so from Time to Time as often as such Reduction shall happen.

Reserved Fund not to be resorted to unless for an extraordinary Claim.

XXXII. Provided always, That no Sum of Money shall be taken from the said Fund for the Purpose of meeting any extraordinary Claim, unless it be first certified in England or Ireland by Two Justices, and in Scotland by the Sheriff, that the Sum so proposed to be taken is required for the Purpose of meeting an extraordinary Claim within the Meaning of this or the special Act.

Application of Interest of reserved Fund.

XXXIII. When such Fund shall, by Accumulation or otherwise, amount to the prescribed Sum, or One Tenth of the nominal Capital of the Company, as the Case may be, the Interest and Dividends thereon shall no longer be invested, but shall be applied to any of the general Purposes of the Undertaking to which the Profits thereof are applicable.

Deficiency of Profits to be supplied from reserved Fund.

XXXIV. If in any Year the Profits of the Undertaking divisible amongst the Undertakers shall not amount to the prescribed Rate, such a Sum may be taken from the reserved Fund as, with the actual divisible Profits of such Year, will enable the Undertakers to make a Dividend of the Amount aforesaid, and so from Time to Time as often as the Occasion shall require.

If Profits are more than the Amount prescribed, a rateable Reduction to be made in the Price of Gas.

XXXV. In England or Ireland the Court of Quarter Sessions, and in Scotland the Sheriff, may, on the Petition of any Two Gas Rate-payers within the Limits of the special Act, nominate and appoint some Accountant or other competent Person, not being a Proprietor of any Gasworks, to examine and ascertain, at the Expence of the Undertakers (the Amount of such Expence to be determined by the said Court or Sheriff), the actual State and Condition of the Concerns of the Undertakers, and to make Report thereof to the said Court at the then present or some following Sessions or to the Sheriff; and the said Court or Sheriff may examine any Witnesses upon Oath touching the Truth of the said Accounts and the Matters therein referred to; and if it thereupon appear to the said Court or Sheriff that the Profits of the Undertakers for the preceding Year have exceeded the prescribed Rate, the Undertakers shall, in case the whole of the said reserved Fund has been and then remains invested as aforesaid, and in case Dividends to the Amount herein-before limited have been paid, make such a rateable Reduction in the Profits of the Company.

Rate for Gas to be furnished by them as in the Judgment of the said Court or Sheriff shall be proper, but so as such Rates, when reduced, shall ensure to the Undertakers (regard being had to the Amount of Profit before received) a Profit as near as may be to the prescribed Rate.

Court may order Petitioner to pay Costs of groundless Petition.

XXXVI. Provided always, That if, in the Case of any Petition so presented, it appear to the said Court or Sheriff that there was no sufficient Ground for presenting the same, the said Court or Sheriff may, if they or he think fit, order the Petitioner to pay the whole or any Part of the Costs of or incident to such Petition (the Amount thereof to be determined by the said Court or Sheriff), and the Costs so ordered to be paid shall be recoverable in the same Way as Damages are recoverable under this or the special Act.

Penalty on Undertakers for refusing to produce Books, Vouchers, &c.

XXXVII. If the Undertakers shall, for Seven Days after being required to produce to the said Court or Sheriff, or to the said Accountant or other Person as aforesaid, any Books of Account or other Books, Bills, Receipts, Vouchers, or Papers relating to the pecuniary Affairs of the Undertakers refuse or neglect to produce such Books, Bills, Receipts, Vouchers, or Papers, they shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds for every such Refusal or wilful Neglect, and the further Sum of Ten Pounds for every Day such Refusal or wilful Neglect shall continue after the Expiration of the said Seven Days, such respective Penalties to be recovered by any Person who will sue for the same, with full Costs of Suit, in any of the Superior Courts.

Annual Account to be made up by Undertakers, and sent to the Clerk of the Peace in England or Ireland, or to the Sheriff Clerk in Scotland, and to be open to Inspection.

XXXVIII. And with respect to the yearly Receipt and Expenditure of the Undertakers, be it enacted, That the Undertakers shall, in each Year after they have begun to supply Gas under the Provisions of this or the special Act, cause an Account in abstract to be prepared of the total Receipts and Expenditure of all Rents or Funds levied under the Powers of this or the special Act for the Year preceding, under the several distinct Heads of Receipt and Expenditure, with a Statement of the Balance of such Account, duly audited and certified by the Chairman of the Undertakers, and also by the Auditors thereof, if any; and a Copy of such annual Account, if the Gasworks be situated in England or Ireland, shall be transmitted, free of Charge, to the Clerk of the Peace for the County in which the Gasworks are situate, and if the Gasworks be situated in Scotland, such Copy shall be transmitted, free of Charge as aforesaid, to the Sheriff Clerk of such County, and such Transmission shall be made on or before the Thirty-first Day of January in each Year, under a Penalty of Twenty Pounds for each Default; and the Copy of such Account so sent to the said Clerk of the Peace or Sheriff Clerk shall be kept by him, and shall be open to Inspection by all Persons at all seasonable Hours, on Payment of One Shilling for each Inspection.

Tender of Amends.

XXXIX. And with respect to Tender of Amends, be it enacted, That if any Person shall have committed any Irregularity, Trespass, or other wrongful Proceeding in the Execution of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, or by virtue of any Power or Authority thereby given, and if before Action brought in respect thereof such Person make Tender of sufficient Amends to the Party injured, such last-mentioned Party shall not recover in any such Action; and if no such Tender have been made the Defendant may, by Leave of the Court where such Action is pending, at any Time before Issue joined, pay into Court such Sum of Money as he thinks fit, and thereupon such Proceedings shall be had as in other Cases where Defendants are allowed to pay Money into Court.

Recovery of Damages and Penalties.

And with respect to the Recovery of Damages not specially provided for, and of Penalties, and to the Determination of any other Matter referred to Justices or to the Sheriff, be it enacted as follows:

The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, as to Damages, &c. to be incorporated with this and the special Act.

XL. If the Gasworks be in England or Ireland, the Clauses of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to the Recovery of Damages not specially provided for, and of Penalties, and to the Determination of any other Matter referred to Justices, shall be incorporated with this and the special Act; and if the Gasworks be in Scotland, the Clauses of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act (Scotland), 1845, with respect to the Recovery of Damages not specially provided for, and to the Determination of any other Matter referred to the Sheriff or to Justices, shall be incorporated with this and the special Act, and such Clauses shall apply to the Gasworks and to the Undertakers respectively, and shall be construed as if the Word "Undertakers" had been inserted instead therein of the Word "Company."

LXIX. When several Houses or Parts of Houses in the separate Occupation of several Persons are supplied by one common Pipe, the several Owners or Occupiers of such Houses or Parts of Houses shall be liable to the Payment of the same Rates for the Supply of Water as they would have been liable to if each of such several Houses or Parts of Houses had been supplied with Water from the Works of the Undertakers by a separate Pipe.

LXX. The

Rates to be paid quarterly.

LXX. The Rates shall be paid in advance by equal quarterly Payments, in England or Ireland, at Christmas Day, Lady Day, Midsummer Day, and Michaelmas Day, and in Scotland at Martinmas, Candlemas, Whitsuntide, and Lammas, and the first Payment shall be made at the Time when the Pipe by which the Water is supplied is made to communicate with the Pipes of the Undertakers, or at the Time when the Agreement to take Water from the Undertakers is made.

The Owners of all Dwelling Houses or Parts of Dwelling Houses occupied as separate Tenements, the annual Value of which Houses or Tenements shall not exceed the Sum of Ten Pounds, shall be liable to the Payment of the Rates instead of the Occupiers thereof; and the Powers and Provisions herein or in the special Act contained for the Recovery of Rates from Occupiers shall be construed to apply to the Owners of such Houses and Tenements; and the Person receiving the Rents of any such House or Tenement as aforesaid from the Occupier thereof, on his own Account, or as Agent or Receiver for any Person interested therein, shall be deemed the Owner of such House or Tenement.

LXXIII. Provided always, That when any Owner shall pay any such Rate in respect of any such Dwelling House or Part of a Dwelling House which shall be in the Occupation of any Tenant under any Lease or Agreement made prior to the passing of the special Act, such Tenant shall repay to the Owner all Sums which shall be so by him paid during the Continuance of such Lease, unless it have been agreed that the Owner shall pay the Water Rates in respect of such Dwelling House or Part of a Dwelling House; and every such Sum of Money payable by the Tenant to the Owner, under the Provision herein-before contained, may be recovered, if the same be not paid upon Demand, as Arrears of Rent could be recovered from the Occupier by the said Owner.

Rates how to be recovered.

LXXIV. If any Person supplied with Water by the Undertakers, or liable as herein or in the special Act provided to pay the Water Rate, neglect to pay such Water Rate at any of the said Times of Payment thereof the Undertakers may stop the Water from flowing into the Premises in respect of which such Rate is payable, by cutting off the Pipe to such Premises, or by such Means as the Undertakers shall think fit, and may recover the Rate due from such Person, if less than Twenty Pounds, with the Expences of cutting off the Water, and Costs of recovering the Rate, in the same Manner as any Damages for the Recovery of which no special Provision is made are recoverable by this or the special Act; or if the Rate so due amount to Twenty Pounds or upwards, the Undertakers may recover the same, with the Expences of cutting off the Water, by Action in any Court of competent Jurisdiction.

Profits of the Undertakers.

And with respect to the Amount of Profit to be received by the Undertakers when the Waterworks are carried on for their Benefit, be it enacted as follows:

Profits of the Company to be limited.

LXXV. The Profits of the Undertaking to be divided among the Undertakers in any Year shall not exceed the prescribed Rate, or where no Rate is prescribed they shall not exceed the Rate of Ten Pounds in the Hundred by the Year on the paid-up Capital in the Undertaking, which in such Case shall be deemed the prescribed Rate, unless a larger Dividend be at any Time necessary to make up the Deficiency of any previous Dividend which shall have fallen short of the said yearly Rate.

If Profits exceed the Amount limited, Excess to be invested and form a reserved Fund.

LXXVI. If the clear Profits of the Undertaking in any Year amount to a larger Sum than is sufficient after making up the Deficiency in the Dividends of any previous Year as aforesaid, to make a Dividend at the prescribed Rate, the Excess beyond the Sum necessary for such Purpose shall from Time to Time be invested in Government or other Securities, and the Dividends and Interest arising from such Securities shall also be invested in the same or like Securities in order that the same may accumulate at Compound Interest until the Fund so formed amounts to the prescribed Sum, or if no Sum be prescribed to a Sum equal to One Tenth Part of the nominal Capital of the Undertakers, which Sum shall form a reserved Fund to answer any Deficiency which may at any Time happen in the Amount of divisible Profits, or to meet any extraordinary Claim or Demand which may at any Time arise against the Undertakers; and if such Fund be at any Time reduced it may thereafter be again restored to the said Sum, and so from Time to Time as often as such Reduction shall happen.

Reserved Fund not to be resorted to.

LXXVII. Provided always, That no Sum of Money shall be taken from the said Fund for the Purpose of meeting any extraordinary Claim, unless it be first certified, in England or Ireland, by Two Justices and in Scotland by the Sheriff, that the Sum so proposed to be taken is required for the Purpose of meeting an extraordinary Claim within the Meaning of this or the special Act.

When Fund amounts to prescribed Sum how Interest to be applied.

LXXVIII. When such Fund shall, by Accumulation or otherwise, amount to the prescribed Sum, or One Tenth Part of the nominal Capital, as the Case may be, the Interest and Dividends thereon shall no longer be invested, but shall be applied to any of the general Purposes of the Undertaking to which the Profits thereof are applicable.

If Profits are less than prescribed Rate, how Deficiency to be supplied.

LXXIX. If in any Year the Profits of the Undertaking divisible amongst the Undertakers shall not amount to the prescribed Rate, such a Sum may be taken from the reserved Fund as, with the actual divisible Profits of such Year, will enable the Undertakers to make a Dividend of the Amount aforesaid, and so from Time to Time as often as the Occasion shall require.

If Profits are more than the Amount pre-

Court may order Petitioner to pay the Costs of groundless Petition.

LXXXI. Provided always, That if, in the Case of any Petition so presented it appear to the said Court or Sheriff that there was no sufficient Ground for presenting the same, the said Court or Sheriff may, if they or he think fit, order the Petitioner to pay the whole or any Part of the Costs of or incident to such Petition (the Amount thereof to be determined by the said Court or Sheriff), and the Costs so ordered to be paid shall be recoverable in the same Way as Damages are recoverable under this or the special Act.

Penalty on Undertakers refusing to produce Books, Vouchers, &c.

LXXXII. If the Undertakers shall, for Seven Days after being required to produce to the said Court or Sheriff or to the said Accountant or other Person as aforesaid, any Books of Account, or other Books, Bills, Receipts, Vouchers, or Papers, relating to their pecuniary Affairs, refuse or neglect to produce such Books, Bills, Receipts, Vouchers, or Papers, they shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds for every such Refusal or wilful Neglect, and the further Sum of Ten Pounds for every Day during which such Refusal or wilful Neglect shall continue after the Expiration of the said Seven Days; such respective Penalties to be recovered by any Person who will sue for the same, with full Costs of Suit, in any of the Superior Courts.

And with respect to Tender of Amends, be it enacted, That if any Person shall have committed any Irregularity, Trespass, or other wrongful Proceeding in the Execution of this or the special Act or any Act incorporated therewith, or by virtue of any Power or Authority thereby given, and if before Action brought in respect thereof such Person make Tender of sufficient Amends to the Person injured, such last-mentioned Person shall not recover in any such Action; and if no such Tender have been made the Defendant may by Leave of the Court where such Action is pending, at any Time before Issue joined, pay into Court such Sum of Money as he thinks fit, and thereupon such Proceedings shall be had as in other Cases where Defendants are allowed to pay Money into Court.

Recovery of Damages and Penalties.

And with respect to the Recovery of Damages not specially provided for, and of Penalties, and to the Determination of any other Matter referred to Justices or to the Sheriff, be it enacted as follows:

In Ireland, Part of Penalties to be paid to Guardians of Unions.

LXXXVI. Provided always, That in Ireland in the Case of any Penalty imposed by Justices, where the Application is not otherwise provided for, such Justices may award not more than One Half of such Penalty to the Informer, and shall award the Remainder to the Guardians of the Poor of the Union within which the Offence shall have been committed, to be applied in aid of the Poor Rates of such Union.

One Magistrate in England or Ireland, and the Sheriff in Scotland, may act for Two Justices.

LXXXVII. All Things herein or in the special Act or any Act incorporated therewith, authorized or required to be done by Two Justices, may and shall be done in England and Ireland by any One Magistrate having by Law Authority to act alone for any Purpose with the Powers of Two or more Justices, and in Scotland by the Sheriff or Steward of any County, Stewartry, or Ward, or his Substitute.

LXXXVIII. Every

CAP. XVIII.

An Act to indemnify such Persons in the United Kingdom as have omitted to qualify themselves for Offices and Employments, and to extend the Time limited for those Purposes respectively until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.

[23d April 1847.]

[This Act is the same, except as to Dates, as 9 & 10 Vict. c. 13.]

CAP. XIX.

An Act for raising the Sum of Eighteen millions three hundred and ten thousand seven hundred Pounds by Exchequer Bills, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven. [23d April 1847.]

CAP. XX.

An Act to authorize the Application of certain Sums received on account of the Fees payable to the Office of Director in Chancery in Scotland towards the Payment of Debts incurred in completing the General Register House at Edinburgh. [23d April 1847.]

57 G. 3. c. 64. 3 G. 4. c. 62. 7 & 8 G. 4. c. 46.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to abolish certain Offices, and regulate others in Scotland, whereby the Fees of certain Offices regulated by the said Act were directed to be paid to the Receiver General of Scotland, and to be applied in the Manner therein mentioned: And whereas another Act was passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for regulating the Fees chargeable in His Majesty's General Registry House at Edinburgh, and for completing the Buildings necessary for keeping the Public Records of Scotland therein, whereby it was provided, that the Balance of all Fees that had arisen and should thereafter arise, and which were directed by the said first-recited Act to be paid to the Receiver General of Scotland, should be paid to the Persons in the said second-recited Act named, to the Amount of Thirty thousand Pounds, to be applied by them in completing and fitting-up the Buildings of the General Register House or Repository of the Public Records of Scotland: And whereas another Act was passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for the better enabling the Commissioners appointed by an Act passed in the Third Year of His present Majesty to complete the Buildings of His Majesty's General Register House at Edinburgh, whereby it was enacted, that the Balance of all such Fees as had already arisen or should thereafter arise, and which were directed by the said first-recited Act to be paid to the Receiver General of Scotland, should be paid to the Persons therein named, to the Amount in all of Twenty thousand Pounds, to be applied by them, or any Three or more of them, in enlarging, altering, and improving, and completing and fitting-up, the Buildings intended for a general Repository of the Public Records of Scotland: And whereas, for the greater Convenience of the Courts of Justice and of the Public, and to accomplish with as little Delay as possible the Purposes of the said Acts, by enlarging, altering, and improving, and completing and fitting-up, the said Buildings, it became necessary for the said Commissioners to borrow, and they did accordingly borrow certain considerable Sums of Money, which were all duly applied for the Purposes of the said Acts: And whereas by Reports made by the Persons named as Commissioners by the said Two last-recited Acts, in pursuance thereof, to the Two Houses of Parliament, it appears that the annual Amount of the Balances thereby directed to be paid and applied as aforesaid fell much short of their expected Amount, and the Result of various Measures adopted by Parliament for the Amelioration of the Law of Scotland also tended considerably to diminish the Fees applicable to the Purposes of the said Two last-recited Acts, whereby there remains unpaid of the said Sums so borrowed, and applied to the Purposes aforesaid, as ascertained by Report of the Queen's and Lord High Treasurer's Remembrancer in Scotland, a Balance of Seventeen thousand two hundred and seventy-three Pounds or thereby, and there are no Means for the Extinction thereof available or likely to arise out of the Fees appropriated for the Completion of the said General Register House as aforesaid, as the Amount of the said Fees has been recently still further diminished by the annual Payment thereout of the Salary of the Lord Clerk Register, which, after the Death of the late Lord Clerk Register, was by the said first-recited Act appointed to be paid out of such Fees, and it is necessary to make further Provision for Payment of the said Balance: And whereas, upon the Decision of certain legal Proceedings which took place in relation to the Fees of the Office of Director in Chancery connected with the said Register House, a Sum of Twenty thousand seven hundred and eleven Pounds Fourteen Shillings and One Penny has been paid into Bank to the Credit of the said Office of Director in Chancery; and it is just and expedient that so much of the said Sum as shall be necessary to extinguish the said Debt should be applied to that end:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful to the Lord High Treasurer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the said United Kingdom, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby required, by Warrant under their Hands, to authorize Her Majesty's and the Lord High Treasurer's Remembrancer in Scotland to apply so much of the said Sum of Twenty thousand seven hundred and eleven Pounds Fourteen Shillings and One Penny, now standing at the Credit of the Office of Director in Chancery as aforesaid, in Payment and Extinction of the said Debt of Seventeen thousand two hundred and seventy-three Pounds Nine Shillings and Seven-pence, incurred in the Completion of the said Register House, together with any Interest which may accrue thereon before the same be paid, and to direct that the same be duly discharged accordingly.

Treasury to authorize Remembrancer in Scotland to apply certain Monies in Payment of Debt incurred in the Completion of the Register House, &c.

Certain Parts of recited Acts 3 G. 4. c. 62. and 7 & 8 G. 4. c. 46. repealed.

II. And be it enacted, That the said recited Acts of the Third and of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, in so far as the same authorize and direct the enlarging, altering, and improving, and completing and fitting up, the said General Register House, and the Application thereto of the Balances of any Fees receivable at the said General Register House, shall be and are hereby repealed.

Act may be amended, &c.

III. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed during the present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XXI.

An Act to regulate the Stations of Soldiers during Parliamentary Elections. [23d April 1847.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intituled An Act for regulating the quartering of Soldiers during the Time of the Election of Members to serve in Parliament, Provision is made for the Removal of all Soldiers quartered or billeted in any City, Borough, Town, or Place to the Distance of Two or more Miles, when and as often as any Election of any Peer or Peers to represent the Peers of Scotland in Parliament, or of any Member or Members to serve in Parliament, shall be appointed to be made therein: And whereas in consequence of Changes in the Law for taking the Poll at the Election of Members to serve in Parliament the Expence and Inconvenience of such Removal of Soldiers is greatly increased:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act shall be repealed. 8 G. 2. c. 30. Recited Act repealed.

II. And be it enacted, That on every Day appointed for the Nomination or for the Election or for taking the Poll for the Election of a Member or Members to serve in the Commons House of Parliament no Soldier within Two Miles of any City, Borough, Town, or Place where such Nomination or Election shall be declared or Poll taken shall be allowed to go out of the Barrack or Quarters in which he is stationed, unless for the Purpose of mounting or relieving Guard, or for giving his Vote at such Election; and that every Soldier allowed to go out for any such Purpose within the Limits aforesaid shall return to his Barrack or Quarters with all convenient Speed as soon as his Guard shall have been relieved or Vote tendered. Soldiers to remain in Barracks or Quarters during Elections for Members of Parliament, except in certain Cases.

III. And be it enacted, That when and so often as any Election of any Member or Members to serve in the Commons House of Parliament shall be appointed to be made, the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery or other Officer making out any new Writ for such Election shall, with all convenient Speed after making out the said Writ, give Notice thereof to the Secretary at War, or in case there shall be no Secretary at War to the Person officiating in his Stead, who shall, at some convenient Time before the Day appointed for such Election, give Notice thereof in Writing to the General Officer commanding in each District of Great Britain, who shall thereupon give the necessary Orders for enforcing the Execution of this Act in all Places under his Command. Notice of Elections to be given by the Clerk of the Crown to Secretary at War, &c.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed to apply to any Soldiers attending as the Guards of Her Majesty or any Person of the Royal Family, or to the Soldiers usually stationed or employed within the Bank of England. Not to apply to Guards attending Her Majesty, &c.

V. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament. Act may be amended, &c.

CAP. XXII.

An Act to amend, and continue until the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, an Act for making Provision for the Treatment of poor Persons afflicted with Fever in Ireland.

[27th April 1847.]

And be it enacted, That where any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments purchased or wanted or intended to be purchased by the said Commissioners shall be subject solely, or jointly with other Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments not intended or wanted to be purchased, to or with any Rent-service, Rent-charge, or Chief Rent, or other Rent-payment or Incumbrance, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to agree for the Release of the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments so purchased or wanted, or intended to be purchased, from such Rent-payment or Incumbrance, and also, where necessary or convenient, for an Apportionment of such Rent-payment or Incumbrances, for such gross Sum as shall be agreed upon between the said Commissioners and the Party who under the Provisions of this Act shall agree to sell or apportion the same, and which Agreement may be entered into by all Persons and Corporations by this Act authorized and empowered to sell or convey Lands; and the Monies to be paid shall be paid and applied in manner herein-before directed with regard to the Purchase Monies on the Sale of Lands; and in case any Difference shall arise respecting the Value of such Rent-payment or Incumbrance, or respecting the Apportionment thereof, the same shall be determined by a Jury, if required, in like Manner as the Price of Lands is by this Act directed to be settled in case of Dispute as to the Value thereof, which Jury shall assess and determine the Value of the Rent-payment or Incumbrance affecting the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments purchased or wanted or intended to be purchased, and shall also (where necessary or convenient) apportion the Rent-payment or Incumbrance affecting the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments jointly subject to Rent-payment or Incumbrance as herein-before mentioned according to the respective Values of the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments purchased or wanted or intended to be purchased, and of the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments not purchased or wanted or intended to be purchased by the said Commissioners; and all Contracts which shall be made by and between the said Commissioners and any such Party as aforesaid respecting such Releases

LXIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no such Order of Exchange as aforesaid shall be confirmed by the Commissioners until Notice shall have been given by Advertisement in Three successive Weeks of such proposed Exchange, and Three Calendar Months shall have elapsed from the Publication of the last of such Advertisements; and in case, before the Expiration of such Three Calendar Months, any Person entitled to any Estate in or to any Charge upon any Land included in such proposed Exchange shall give Notice in Writing to the Commissioners of his Dissent from such proposed Exchange, the Commissioners shall not confirm an Order for such Exchange unless such Dissent shall be withdrawn, or it shall be shown to the Commissioners that the Estate or Charge of the Party so dissenting shall have ceased.
